September 21, 2018

GREENSBORO George Liebmann, age 61, passed away on Monday, September 17, 2018. Our loving husband and precious daddy is finally at home in the arms of the Savior he lived to glorify. Born in Miami, FL on December 13, 1956, to David and Bessie Liebmann, George grew up with his three older sisters whom he adored. He married the love of his life, Leslie Mechling, on June 1, 1977, and faithfully loved and supported her for 41 years. Together they raised five children, pointing them always to Jesus. George spent 20 years as a pastor in North Carolina and Texas before teaching history, Bible, astronomy, and science at Caldwell Academy and Oak Ridge Military Academy. One of his greatest joys was serving for seven years as an elder at Westover Church. His ever-present smile, humble demeanor, words of wisdom, and gentle spirit will long be cherished by the congregants and students he selflessly served. George was preceded in death by his father, David, and his mother, Bessie. He is survived by his wife Leslie, children Amy Gant, Katie (Seth) Anderson, David (Laura) Liebmann, Christy (Joshua) Marsh, Matthew (Adrianna) Liebmann, twelve grandchildren whom he adored, his sisters Joyce (Larry) Dunkel, Marilyn (Myles) Willard, and Carolyn (Sam) Dawson and many loving in-laws, nieces, and nephews. A homegoing service will be held at Westover Church on Saturday, September 22, 2018, at 2 p.m. followed by a private graveside service. In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made in George's honor to Westover Church, 505 Muirs Chapel Road, Greensboro, NC 27410.
