Glenn Stern

Obituary

Stern Stern, Glenn M of North Miami 54, passed away on May 15, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer. Born in White Plains NY, Glenn was the beloved son of Joan Stern and the late Marshall Stern and cherished brother of Daryl and Debbie. He leaves behind a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many dear friends. Glenn was a successful businessman and found his niche in his antique business, ? Yesterday Once More?. Glenn found enjoyment in dining out daily. He loved to cook and entertain his friends and family with his varied and delicious array of homemade meals and desserts. Glenn had a beautiful heart. He was a great humanitarian. His dying wish was to make a difference in peoples? lives. Glenn loved to travel to Cuba. Each trip was not only to enjoy life, but to bring medical supplies for the underserved. He also worked very hard to help two dear friends start a new life here in Miami. Please join us for a gathering of friends and family to commemorate and celebrate the life of Glenn Stern, Sunday May 23, 2010 at 11:30a.m, for more information call 305-936-8828. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Vitas Hospice.
